WAR GARDENS DECORATE RAILWAY RIGHT OF WAYS

Memphis, Tenn.—War gardens are to be seen from the window of almost any passenger train in the South. In some sections long strips of land paralleling the right of way are in cultivation. A field 30 feet wide, or less, and a half-mile long, is not uncommon. There are innumerable little gardens to be found between the end of the crossings and the right-of-way fence.

TELLS OF BIG FIGHT

Canadian Sergeant Describes
Third Battle of Ypres.

Man Who Participated Gives Thrilling
Account of Sanguinary
Conflict.

Chicago.—The thrilling eye-witness story of the third battle of Ypres was told here by Sergt. Reginald Grant of the First Canadian Field Artillery.

"We were in Sanctuary woods about a mile southeast of town. We were the sacrifice battery and were to stay behind if there should be a retreat. Well, our boys went out of the trench and were met by the Germans in mass formation.

"They were smothered—but not before they had wreaked frightful havoc. They died to a man. The Huns came on yelling with all their lungs and as they moved we blew great holes in that formation. But we didn't stop them. They came on running and yelling like fiends of hell.

"Our ammunition was gone. We grabbed parts of the guns and our rifles, and retreated with the rest, stopping now and then to drop one or two of the enemy.

"The battery to our right didn't have a chance to use all their shells. The foe was upon them too quickly with smoke shells that started great fires. The boys there were burned alive.

"Yes, they are fighting the Germans. But so are the British."

FALLS HEAD DOWN IN BARREL

Policeman's Curiosity About Shoes
Leads to Rescue of Unfortunate
Columbus Man.

Columbus, O.—"Why do you suppose anyone should throw away a perfectly good pair of shoes like those?" questioned Patrolman Folk of Officer Mahoney while the two patrolled a North side district early in the morning.

"Let's look 'em over," continued Folk, and the two officers proceeded to a barrel at the side of a house in Congress street, just north of Russell street. The shoes lay upside down at the top of the receptacle.

As each officer started to lift a shoe, there was a gurgling sound from the bottom of the barrel. The shoes would not loosen.

The shoes were fastened to the feet of a man and he was head-downward in the barrel. With considerable difficulty the two policemen released the man, Albert Braker.

He lives in the house beside which the barrel stood. He explained he had started to close a window directly above, lost his balance and fell head-long into the barrel.

EAT MORE COTTAGE CHEESE

Department of Agriculture Seeks to Encourage Production and Use of Meat Substitute.

Washington, D. C.—To encourage the use, as well as the making of cottage cheese—a cheap and palatable substitute for meat—the United States department of agriculture has launched a campaign in which nearly a hundred field workers will take part and which is to carry to every state in the Union this lesson:

Cottage cheese is made from skim milk—now largely wasted or fed to animals. A pound of cottage cheese has the same food value as a pound of meat. Make cottage cheese, and thus put to valuable use wasted skim milk. Eat cottage cheese; save the meat for our soldiers and the allies.

Three of the big divisions of the department of agriculture are working in the campaign, which also has the cooperation of the United States food administration.

'HEARS' MUSIC THROUGH FEET

Deaf Man Tells of Sensations He Experienced at a Piano Recital.

New York.—That a highly sensitive deaf person is able to "hear" music through his feet was demonstrated at the last piano recital given recently by Josef Hofmann here.

Jean Paul Grieg, a young deaf man, gave this impression of the recital: "The main emotion I felt from the floor and again in the unsupported lighter parts of the body, such as the arms and finger tips. The muscles in the upper part of the lower leg also vibrated.

"The lower tones of the piano, when loudly and quickly played, may be experienced inwardly, causing an exciting sensation. Such feeling seems to thrill one and cause a quickening of the circulation."

Proper Food for Weak Stomachs

The proper food for one man may be all wrong for another. Every one should adopt a diet suited to his age and occupation. Those who have weak stomachs need to be especially careful and should eat slowly and masticate their food thoroughly. It is also important that they keep their bowels regular. When they become constipated or when they feel dull and stupid after eating, they should take Chamberlain's Tablets to strengthen the stomach and move the bowels. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect.—adv.

BATCH OF SMILES

It All Helps.

"I ordered my garden seed today."

"Your garden was a failure last year, wasn't it?"

"In a way it was. Still, my neighbors' chickens got fat on the seed I planted, so my work still had some effect toward relieving the food shortage."

Dropped Within Reach.

"Do you like your eggs dropped?"

"You bet. I was delighted when they came down twenty cents."

Playing Safe.

"You have planted mostly onions and radishes."

"Yes," returned Mr. Crosslots. "Nobody at our house eats them. So if they don't happen to grow it won't make so much difference."

Army Father Joined.

"What are you crying for, little girl?"

"Cause daddy joined the army."

"You shouldn't cry for that. Won't you like your daddy when he's dressed like me?"

"But—daddy joined the Salvation Army!"

His Ear to the Ground.

"What is your idea as to the political situation?"

"My friend," replied Senator Sorghum, "we regular expert politicians know how to go with the people. And just now all of our people are fighting for our country and not for jobs."

New Calendar Demanded.

"These old calendars are no good."

"Don't they give you the day of the week, month and year?"

"Yes, but who cares. What I want to learn when I get up in the morning is what I go without today."

Two His Senior in Years.

A lady, anxious to find out how many children a new neighbor had asked one of the boys, "How many of you are there?"

"Five," he answered.

"Are you the oldest?" questioned the lady.

"No," the boy replied. "There are two older'n me—ma and pa."

Not Worth It.

"I see where Mrs. Jiggins sued for $100 damages for alienation of her husband's affections."

"What extortion!"

Best Remedy for Whooping Cough

"Last winter when my little boy had the whooping cough I gave him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes Mrs. J. B. Roberts, East St. Louis, Ill. "It kept his cough loose and relieved him of those dreadful coughing spells. It is the only cough medicine I keep in the house because I have the most confidence in it." This remedy is also good for colds and croup.—adv.
